Cropsey Sworn into Michigan State Senate

Represents the 33rd District, including Clinton, Ionia, Isabella and Montcalm Counties

January 8, 2003 – Senator Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, was officially sworn into the Michigan State Senate today by Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Maura D. Corrigan.

“I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve the residents and families of the 33rd District in the Michigan State Senate,” Cropsey said. “As I have sworn today in the Senate Chambers before my family and friends, I will support the United States Constitution, the Michigan Constitution and faithfully discharge the duties of State Senator, according to the best of my ability.”

All 38 members of the Michigan Senate were sworn in during the ceremony.

Cropsey is the Chair of the standing Judiciary Committee and is a member of the Appropriations Committee. He will serve as the Chair of the Judiciary/Corrections Appropriations Subcommittee, Vice Chair of the K-12 Appropriations Subcommittee, Vice Chair of the Retirement Appropriations Subcommittee, and a member of the Capital Outlay Appropriations Subcommittee.

Note: A downloadable picture of Senator Cropsey will be available after 5 p.m. on the Senate Photowire at <http://www.senate.state.mi.us/gop/photowire/>. A recording of Cropsey reciting the oath of office is available on the Michigan Senate Hotline at (517) 373-4000.
